

Dear Educator,

The 2017 TIFF Industry Conference returns with a six-day programme from September 8–13, as part of the 2017 Toronto International Film Festival.

The 2017 TIFF Industry Conference will unite domestic and international film educators and enable them to experience a world-renowned film festival together, with over 5,500 industry professionals.

Geared towards inspiring both the current and next generation of content creators, the Conference will feature a diverse lineup of international speakers. We'll focus on the creative process, financing, marketing, distribution, and diversity in the industry and the future of content. Join us for relevant and topical keynotes, panel discussions, and presentations highlighting financially sustainable filmmaking practices.

We are pleased, once again, to offer current and retired scholars and educators who are currently engaged in film or film related research and are affiliated with a post-secondary institution, two special rates to TIFF 2017.

Regularly priced at $470+Tax (CAD), the discounted TIFF Conference Pass is made available at a reduced rate of just $235+Tax (CAD). Alternatively, regularly priced at $685+Tax (CAD), the discounted TIFF Industry Pass is made available at a reduced rate of just $405+Tax (CAD).

Benefits for both passes include:

- Access to 6-day Industry Conference
- Access to Doc Conference
- Access to all Industry locations
- Access to all Industry publications
- Access to all Online Resources
- Access to Business Centre
- Access to Screening Library
- Access to Networking event

The primary difference between the two pass types is their Screening Access. The Industry Pass has access to Press & Industry Screenings on a first-come firsts-serve basis, while the Conference Pass has access on a RUSH basis. Please visit us at tiff.net/industry for more information about the different benefits of each pass.
