

UNIVERSITY
OF MANITOBA

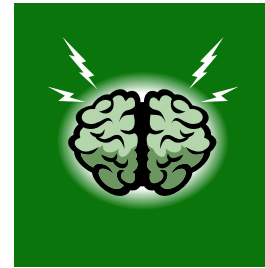

The University of Manitoba is offering
“Fundamentals of Neuroscience I & II”
IMED 7101 (fall) IMED 7102 (winter)

These are two interdisciplinary 3 credit hour graduate student courses held at the Faculty of Medicine, Bannatyne Campus (formerly the 6 credit hour IMED 7100)

Tuesdays & Thursdays

3:00 - 4:30 p.m.

Physiology Library - Room 431
4th Floor, Basic Medical Sciences Building

Fundamentals of Neuroscience I = IMED 7101

- runs from September - December, 2012

Fundamentals of Neuroscience II = IMED 7102

- runs from January - April, 2013

Registration is open to all graduate students enrolled in any Faculty/School/Department interested in Neuroscience from the Fort Garry / Bannatyne Campuses and St. Boniface Research Centre

For more information contact:

Brent Fedirchuk:
(course director)

brent@scrc.umanitoba.ca
789-3762