

The title "MA STUDIES IN COMPARATIVE LITERATURE AND ARTS" is centered on a white rectangular background. The letters are large and filled with a vibrant, multi-colored pattern of small, repeating motifs, including circles and abstract shapes in shades of blue, green, yellow, and red. The text is arranged in five lines: "MA", "STUDIES IN", "COMPARATIVE", "LITERATURE", and "AND ARTS".

MA STUDIES IN COMPARATIVE LITERATURE AND ARTS

Our graduate program provides a dynamic interdisciplinary environment that encourages students to pursue questions of comparativity across disciplines, cultures, and forms of production whilst also providing opportunity for professionalization. -Cristina Santos, Graduate Program Director.

The Studies in Comparative Literature and Arts program has been specially designed, nurtured and honed to challenge students with a real interest in the multi- and interdisciplinary collision of ideas in the Humanities, particularly questions of comparativity between different forms of creative expression.
