

THE SPANISH PROGRAM &
THE GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES

INVITE YOU TO OUR NEXT COLLOQUIUM

WOMEN'S VOICES

September 26th to September 28th, 2018
Simard Hall (125, 129 SMD), University of Ottawa

During our colloquium and given the feminine inequity in the Pan-American democratic context, we wish to reflect on the condition of women nowadays, the plurality of women's identities and (self)representations through a multicultural and multidisciplinary collective perspective.

Our Women's Voices colloquium features an opening day on September 26th at 6.30pm, follow by two days of conferences and panel discussions on September 27th & 28th, 2018.

Our Keynote speakers:

Prof. Lauren Beck (Mount Allison University)
Prof. Paul R. Carr (Université du Québec en Outaouais)
Prof. Rosalía Cornejo Parriego (University of Ottawa)
Prof. Jean Morisset (Université du Québec à Montréal)
Prof. Julie Perreault (University of Ottawa)

This call for proposals is aimed at professors and graduate students in the Arts and Humanities working on cultural studies, gender studies, queer studies, indigenous studies; sociolinguistics, migration and diaspora, etc.

Proposal: of 250 words and 3-5 keywords.

Submission deadline: July 15th, 2018.

Please, include your name(s), affiliation and title of the presentation.

Conference: 15-20 minutes.
