

JANE'S WALK

5th Annual

- * Walkable neighbourhoods
- * Cities planned for people
- * Urban exploration

MAY 7 & 8, 2011

FREE NEIGHBOURHOOD WALKING TOURS!

On Saturday May 7 & Sunday May 8, explore Winnipeg's diverse and vibrant neighbourhoods while walking, talking and sharing ideas. Join a walking tour in your community led by your neighbours!

Celebrate the legacy of Jane Jacobs: an urbanist and activist whose writings championed a fresh, community-based approach to city building. For more information and to find a Jane's Walk in your community visit :

www.janeswalk.net

To organize a Jane's Walk in your community or to get in touch with questions, contact: Matt 421-2903 or mgcarreau@gmail.com

WALKS THIS YEAR INCLUDE:

History Lives in North Point Douglas with Robert Galston

Winnipeg Modern: Explore Winnipeg's Modernist Architectural Heritage with Serena Keshavjee

The Rapid Transit Walk with Paul Hesse

So You Thought You Knew the West End?
with Gloria Cardwell-Hoepfner

Discover Public Art in Downtown Winnipeg with Tricia Wasney

Sharing Cars and Gardens: An educational walk through Osborne Village with Melissa Dupuis and Shauna Carmichael

The Heart of Fort Rouge: Riverview, a Place With it All with Dino Distasio

+ Many more. Visit our website for a complete list!

“ YOU'VE GOT TO GET OUT AND WALK ”

— Jane Jacobs, urbanist and author of The Life and Death of Great American Cities

