

JANE'S WALK

4th Annual Jane's Walk

walkable neighbourhoods – urban literacy – cities planned for and by people

May 1 & 2, 2010

Jane's Walk – a street-level celebration of Jane Jacobs' legacy held annually in cities across Canada on the first weekend of May.

Combining the simple act of walking with personal observations, urban history and local lore to knit people together into strong and resourceful communities.

All Jane's Walks are FREE !
