

UBERING THE CITY: UNDERSTANDING THE CHANGES TO TRANSPORTATION IN WINNIPEG

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 2017 - 2:00 PM

A public roundtable discussion featuring:

Joe Kornelsen, public transit advocate • David Camfield, Department of Labour Studies/Sociology • Lea Baturin, former member, Winnipeg Taxicab Board • Adolf Ng, Director, University of Manitoba Transport Institute • Scott McFadyen, Spokesperson, Winnipeg Community Taxi Coalition • Paul Moist, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives • Sheri Gibbings, Wilfrid Laurier University

409 Tier Building

This discussion brings together academics and policy makers, as well as people from the taxi industry and the nonprofit sector to discuss the changes taking place in Winnipeg, share their expertise and opinions, and consider the future of transportation in Winnipeg.

Organized by Sheri Gibbings, Wilfrid Laurier University, with support from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, and the U of M Institute for the Humanities.

For more information, visit
umanitoba.ca

UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA