

WE BELONG IN PT NETWORKING EVENT

In Partnership With:

- Queer Physiotherapy Collective (QPC)
- Black Physiotherapy Association (BPTA)
- Global Health Division, CPA
- Indigenous Health Subcommittee (IHS), CPA
- Justice-Centred Rehab (JCR)

Health education spaces can sometimes be isolating or shaped by assumptions about what PTs are “supposed” to be. We’re here to interrupt that. There is a growing network of students, educators, and clinicians working to make PT more inclusive, affirming, and just.

Join us for an exciting networking event to meet the groups doing amazing advocacy work and learn how to get involved!

October 21, 2026 @7pm EST, online

QUEER PHYSIOTHERAPY COLLECTIVE (QPC)

- A community that strives to centre the voices of 2S/LGBTQ+ PT students and clinicians
- QPC creates a space for us in our profession through community, advocacy, and mentorship
- Offers opportunities to participate in and assist with queer-focused research
- We meet 2-3x/yr to discuss ways we can support each other and the queer and trans communities more broadly
- Follow us on Instagram @queerptc or email us at queerphysiotherapycollective@gmail.com

B P T A

Black Physiotherapy Association

BLACK PHYSIOTHERAPY ASSOCIATION (BPTA)

- The BPTA is a collective of Black physiotherapists and physiotherapy students across Canada who support each other and the communities we serve through fellowship, education, mentoring, and advocacy
- We are also committed to working towards equity in healthcare, research, education, and leadership
- Email us at BPTA.canada@outlook.com or follow our Instagram @BPTA_Cdn

GLOBAL HEALTH DIVISION, CPA

- The Global Health Division of the CPA brings together Canadian PTs who care about justice, equity, and culturally appropriate care
- We explore how systemic issues, both in Canada and around the world, affect health and rehabilitation
- Expanding beyond fostering international opportunities, our community is reimagining what physiotherapy can look like when it is grounded in fairness, inclusion, and care - for both people and the planet
- Email us at globalhealth@physiotherapy.ca

INDIGENOUS HEALTH SUBCOMMITTEE (IHS), CPA

- IHS strives to support authentic engagement with Indigenous Peoples in Canada; the implementation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada's Calls to Action; and the mitigation of health inequities and perpetuation of colonialism and racism within the Canadian PT profession
- IHS creates a space for Indigenous PTs, PTAs, PT and PTA students, and allies in our profession to be involved in the community
- We meet 2-3x/yr to discuss ways we can support each other and Indigenous communities
- Email us at ghdindigenous@gmail.com

JUSTICE CENTERED REHAB (JCR)

- JCR is a community and network of rehab professionals, educators, and students
- We create a space to meet, to discuss, to support, and to further our collective and individual understanding and actions of how we can bring justice to the forefront of rehab
- We promote knowledge translation, sharing of resources, and discussion events
- Find us online at <https://linktr.ee/justicecenteredrehab>
- Email us at justicecentredrehab@gmail.com
