What makes a human rights city? Join us for a virtual conversation with a panel of academics and activists who are working towards having Winnipeg live up to its public aspirations of being a human rights city.

Our panel welcomes:

Warren Clarke, Anthropology, Faculty of Arts, University of Manitoba

Nathan Derejko, Mauro Chair in Human Rights and Social Justice, Faculty of Law, University of Manitoba

Reanna Merasty, Artist, Author, and Chair, Welcoming Winnipeg Committee, City of Winnipeg

Joel R. Pruce, Human Rights Studies, College of Arts and Sciences, University of Dayton

Karen Sharma, Manitoba Human Rights Commission

Introductory Remarks from Leah Gazan, MP for Winnipeg Centre; NDP Critic for Women and Gender Equality; Children, Families and Social Development; Deputy Critic for Housing

The event is in recognition of December 10th, which marks the signing of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights.
