

EDUCATION SESSIONS Winter 2020

All MHIKNET education events are free to attend. If you're not able to attend these sessions live, or you're interested in viewing our previous sessions, you can view the recordings at www.mhiknet.ca

Searching for Images

January 20th (online)

1:00 pm – 2:00 pm | Register Here: <http://bit.ly/3557A2T>

Do you want to include images in your presentations and displays? We will review where to search for images, how to assess what use permissions they have, and how to cite them.

Critical Appraisal

February 12th (online)

10:00 am – 11:00 am | Register Here: <http://bit.ly/2LD8090>

Working with evidence means assessing its quality – learn techniques to critically appraise the information you use everyday.

Perils of Predatory Publishing

March 17th (online)

2:00 – 3:00 pm | Register Here: <http://bit.ly/347A5vg>

Predatory journals and fake news cloud the literature with poor-quality information. Guest host Maureen Babb will demonstrate how to spot predatory journals, identify fake news, and how to avoid falling for their scams.

The New PubMed

May 1st (online)

11:00 am – 12:00 pm | Register Here: <http://bit.ly/2PwMIuR>

PubMed is free to search and is the largest collection of health literature. This session will demonstrate how to search PubMed, including its new interface and new search features.
