Speaker:

Dr. Barbara Astle,

PhD, RN, Trinity Western University

The Dr. Margaret Elder Hart Speaker Series is a free event and is open to the public. Named after Margaret Elder Hart, a pioneer in nursing education and the director of the UM School of Nursing from 1948 to her retirement in 1972, the event features distinguished speakers discussing topics relevant to global/planetary health within the context of nursing practice and the broader community.

Dr. Barbara Astle has served on numerous national and global organizations including the Canadian Association of Nurses for the Environment, American Association of Nurses for the Environment, and Canadian Association for Global Health. She is recognized as a leader in global health education and is a founding member for Women in Global Health in Canada.

Presented by the College of Nursing, Rady Faculty of Health Sciences.
