

Bayer Crop Science 2024 University Mentoring Program

BAYER UNIVERSITY
MENTORING PROGRAM

1 year mentoring program with established Bayer scientists

1 on 1 Mentoring (based on technical fit and soft skill development needs)

Building relationships, networks, and a commitment to soft skill development are essential to success as scientists and leaders.

Bayer-hosted Development sessions
(Workshops & seminars)

Career Advancement
Advice

Awareness & build business acumen
Develop relationship with industry partner

Networking within Bayer & across 20+
North American Universities

Who should apply?

Curious scientists and engineers in early career stages (graduate student, postdoc)

In fields related to plant breeding, plant biology, gene editing, crop physiology, chemistry, environmental science, engineering,
computer science, & data science/engineering

Information sessions

Jan 9th, 2024 @ 3:00 pm central time zone
MS Teams Meeting ID: 317 159 501 794
Passcode: uGsE8N

Jan 26st, 2024 @ 1:00 pm central time zone
MS Teams Meeting ID: 361 770 480 814
Passcode: opRWgv

How to apply?

Before 5 pm Feb 9th, email resume to liaisons:

Dr. Harmeet Chawla (Harmeet.Chawla@umanitoba.ca)

Dr. Robert Duncan (Rob.duncan@umanitoba.ca)

And completed application form:

<https://forms.office.com/e/ZfVCiWx8sg>

