

Complete your PhD in the United States with the

Fulbright International Science and Technology Award

Who is eligible?

- Canadian citizens with a superior academic record who have obtained an undergraduate degree

What do I get?

- Three years of full tuition at a top U.S. university with access to world-class facilities
- Access to the prestigious world-wide network of Fulbright scholars
- All travel expenses, including a conference allowance
- Housing allowance plus a monthly stipend
- A comprehensive Health Benefit Plan

See reverse for more details!

For more information please visit www.fulbright.ca

2012-2013 International Fulbright Science and Technology Program Award

This opportunity is available to Canadian students who wish to complete a PhD in the fields of science and/or technology (see detailed list below) in the United States.

Eligibility Requirements

- Undergraduate degree must be obtained before August 1, 2012
- Canadian citizenship (cannot be a dual Canada-U.S. citizen)
- Proficiency in English (TOEFL score (or equivalent) of 580 or higher for non-native speakers of English)
- No substantial recent U.S. experience

Benefits of the Award

- Tuition at a top U.S. university for 3 years
- Monthly stipend for up to 36 months
- Additional research funding possibilities
- Travel support
- Enrichment opportunities and worldwide Fulbright alumni network
- Book and equipment allowance
- Health and accident coverage
- Professional conference allowance
- J-1 visa services

Fields of Study/Research

- Aeronautics and Aeronautical Engineering
- Agriculture (theoretical or research-based focus)
- Astronomy/Planetary Sciences
- Biology
- Biomedical engineering
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Energy
- Engineering (aerospace, electrical, chemical, civil, industrial, mechanical, ocean, & petroleum)
- Environmental Science/Engineering
- Geology/Earth and Atmospheric Sciences
- Information Sciences/Engineering (engineering focus)
- Materials Science/Engineering
- Mathematics
- Neuroscience
- Oceanography
- Physics
- Public health (biostatistics or epidemiology)

Application process

- An online applications includes a completed application form, a clearly written research objective, a professional resume or curriculum vitae, three letter of reference (submitted electronically and attached to the online application or official paper copies sent to Fulbright Canada by mail), transcripts scanned and attached to the online application (official paper transcripts must also be sent to Fulbright Canada by mail), score reports (GRE, and TOEFL or IELTS for non-native speakers of English) be provided no later than mid-August
- Applications are available online as of February 1, 2011 at <https://apply.embark.com/student/fulbright/international> and must be submitted online no later than May 31, 2011
- Applications and all supporting documents must also be mailed directly to Fulbright Canada and postmarked on or before May 31, 2011
- Questions can be forwarded to info@fulbright.ca

Selection Process

- Approximately 45 awards will be granted worldwide for candidates who demonstrate unique aptitude and innovation in scientific fields.
- Each country may nominate up to two principal nominees and one alternate nominee.
- All applicants will be notified of the status of their application by late July 2011.
- Principal and alternate candidates in worldwide competition will be notified by mid-October 2011.
- Fulbright Canada recognizes that excellence is found in all linguistic, ethnic and religious groups without regard for gender, age, sexual preference or race, and encourages applications from all interested and eligible candidates

APPLICATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED ONLINE AT <https://apply.embark.com/student/fulbright/international>
NO LATER THAN MAY 31, 2011 AND ALSO MAILED DIRECTLY TO FULBRIGHT CANADA
POSTMARKED ON OR BEFORE MAY 31, 2011
FOR THE 2012-2013 ACADEMIC YEAR