

The Department of Soil Science

University of Manitoba Presents

Dr. Chami Amarasinghe

Research and Development Specialist (Ag Genetics) Manitoba Agriculture

“Explore career paths for agricultural graduate students”

Wednesday, March 13, 2019, 12:30 p.m., Room 346 Ellis Building

Dr. Chami Amarasinghe is a Research and Development Specialist (Ag Genetics) in Manitoba Agriculture. She completed her PhD and MSc degrees in the Department of Plant Science, University of Manitoba. Chami is originally from Sri Lanka and received her BSc (Special) degree in molecular biology and plant biotechnology at the Department of Botany, University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka. Chami has experience in plant pathology, molecular biology and fungal genetics.