

16TH ANNUAL PURSUIT AWARDS

RECOGNIZING GLOBAL EXCELLENCE
IN CHILDHOOD DISABILITY RESEARCH

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

ABOUT

The Pursuit Awards, made possible by the generosity of The Ward Family Foundation, is an international competition recognizing exceptional PhD students and recent doctoral graduates who are advancing research to improve the lives of children and youth with disabilities, developmental differences, and acquired injuries—as well as their families and communities.

PRIZES

1st place: $3,000 CAD

2nd place: $2,000 CAD

3rd place: $1,000 CAD

WHO CAN APPLY

PhD students (within 6 months of defense)

Postdocs (within 1 year)

Recent PhD grads (within 1 year)

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Academic Excellence

Research Impact

Knowledge Translation

Research Productivity

APPLY NOW

Scan the QR code learn more and apply

OPEN TO APPLICANTS WORLDWIDE | DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 11, 2026