

A photograph of four people (three women and one man) sitting around a white conference table in a modern office or library setting. They are engaged in a discussion, with papers and laptops on the table. The text 'MEETING A MOMENT' is overlaid in large white letters.

MEETING A MOMENT

FILM SCREENING

Hosted by the Faculty of Social Work Research Committee

Meeting a Moment: The Art of Social Architecture

Written and Directed by Danielle Sturk, Produced by Leslie Stafford

Canada is in the midst of an affordable housing crisis. In Winnipeg, architects, designers, and advocates unveil affordable housing projects (old and new) that answer the call.

OCTOBER 23, 2026
1:30 PM - 2:30 PM
ROOM 206 TIER BUILDING

Join us for a screening of Meeting a Moment: The Art of Social Architecture, followed by a discussion with Naomi Gichungu, CEO, Co-founder, and Board Chair of Inuka Community Inc., who is featured in the film.

Explore innovative approaches to the housing crisis and connect with others committed to building stronger communities.

UM | Faculty of Social Work