CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: UMIH GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP

Deadline: Thursday, April 30th, 2026

The University of Manitoba Institute for the Humanities is pleased to announce the annual call for submissions for the UMIH Graduate Fellowship for the 2026-2027 academic year. The annual fellowship is valued at up to $5000 (subject to budgetary approval).

Eligibility

The UMIH Graduate Fellowship will be offered to a University of Manitoba graduate student who:

- is enrolled full-time in the Faculty of Graduate Studies in any year of a masters' or doctoral program and is conducting research in the humanities
- has achieved a minimum degree GPA of 3.5 (or equivalent) based on the previous 60 credit hours of study.

While preference will be given to students at a late stage of their PhD program, all graduate students in the humanities are welcome to apply.

The University of Manitoba is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcomes applications from visible minority groups, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, persons of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the future diversification of ideas.

Application requirements

Candidates are required to submit an application consisting of:

- A cover letter (maximum 1000 words) that describes
  - the status of the applicant's research,

<https://umanitoba.ca/arts/institute-humanities>

- the potential significance that the applicant's research will have for one or more disciplines in the humanities,
- the benefits the student hopes to gain by being associated with the Institute for the Humanities,
- the expected timeline for the completion of the degree.
- A statement describing the applicant's research project. This statement should follow UM Graduate Fellowship guidelines for the applicant's department;
- A current academic transcript;
- Two letters of recommendation.
