

The UMIH Guest Lecture Series welcomes

KAREN DUBINSKY

Thurs, October 23rd
409 Tier – 2:30 pm

This presentation counts on the support of the Research Cluster on Power and Resistance in Latin America and the Centre for Human Rights Research.

In this presentation, Karen Dubinsky will discuss her new book Strangely Friends, which focuses on the often-neglected network of personal and cultural connections between Cuban and Canadians since the early days of the Cuban revolution. Read more about the author either by scanning our QR code or by visiting our website.

Institute for the Humanities

Centre for Human Rights Research

