

THE POWER & RESISTANCE IN LATIN AMERICA RESEARCH CLUSTER

presents:

*The Historical and Contemporary Causes of «Survival
Migration». From Central America's Northern Triangle*

LIISA NORTH

(YORK UNIVERSITY)

THURSDAY, JAN 13TH 2022
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM

*Please email
landivan@myumanitoba.ca for Zoom link to attend.*

Liisa L. North (Professor Emeritus, York University) is the author or co-author or editor of thirteen books and about sixty-five book chapters and journal articles on party politics, civil-military relations, and political economic development processes, and mining conflicts in various South American countries; on civil wars, United Nations peacekeeping missions, and human rights and refugee crises in El Salvador and Guatemala; and on Canadian-Latin American relations. She also has written numerous journalistic pieces published in various magazines and national newspapers in Canada and Ecuador. She has been Director of the Centre for Research on Latin America and the Caribbean (CERLAC, York University), President of the Canadian Association of Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CALACS), and director of various institution-building projects financed by the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) in Ecuador and other Andean countries. In 2005, she received the Pio Jaramillo Alvarado Prize in the Social Sciences, awarded annually by FLACSO-Ecuador, with CONESUP and UNESCO, for lifetime contributions to knowledge concerning the Andean Region of South America.
